Acknowledging Priestly Ministry

Dear Parishioners

Two Lurgan-born priests are marking, at this time, the fiftieth anniversary of their Ordination to the priesthood. Canon Gerry McCrory, a native of Clanrolla, was ordained a priest in St Patrick's College, Carlow, on 11th June 1966. He has served all his priestly ministry within the Dromore Diocese and has been Parish Priest of Magheradroll (Ballynahinch) since 1993. Fr Rory McKee, a native of Edward Street, was ordained in Newry Cathedral on 18th June 1966. Fr Rory has served all his years as a priest within the Archdiocese of Washington D.C., most recently as Pastor of the Parish of St Thomas the Apostle, in Washington City. We give thanks to God for the witness of both these Lurgan priests and for their faithfulness to ministry and to the people in their care over the course of five decades.

Over recent days, we have also experienced profound sadness at the passing from this world of Fr Martin McAlinden. Fr Martin grew up in Ashwood and was ordained in St Peter's Church, on 24th June 1990. He served the Diocese of Dromore over the past twenty six years and was a much respected Parish Priest of Moyraverty, and subsequently Dromore, before joining the staff at Maynooth College in 2014. A prolonged struggle with illness ended when Fr Martin died peacefully at the Nothern Ireland Hospice last Monday morning. We give thanks to God for Fr Martin's twenty six years of priestly ministry and for the courage and fortitude with which he faced his final illness. May he rest now in eternal peace.
