A very sincere thank you to parishioners and groups (both church and lay) who contributed to the purchasing of new vestments for both Saint Peter's and Saint Paul's Churches.
Four sets of purple vestments (to be used during the seasons of Advent, Lent and at concelebration of Requiem Masses) along with four sets of white vestments (to be used during the seasons of Christmas, Easter and at concelebration of Nuptial Masses) were purchased for both Saint Peter's Church and Saint Paul's Church.
If anyone would like to contribute towards to purchasing of some new albs, cinctures and stoles for Saint Peter's Church please contact Father Colum Wright. Again, thank you for your kindness.

POPE'S INTENTION FOR JULY
For information and discernment:
Let us pray that we might again learn how to discern, to know how to choose paths of life and reject everything that leads us away from Christ and the Gospel

ROSARY
Grotto in Kilwilke
Every Tuesday in July & August @ 7.00pm.
Please come along and bring your kids and grandkids.
We will be praying for the protection of our young people in our community at this time.

A big thank you once again to Harry Martin for his great work around the gardens and grounds here in St Peter's, keeping the place neat and tidy and cutting back trees and bushes.

Future Funeral Ministry
After a recent meeting of the Clergy of the Lurgan Parishes about what we are able to offer in regards to funerals, and given the ever increasingly difficult workload and pressure we find ourselves under, we think it is important, that as things continue to change at a rapid pace in terms of what we are able to provide, we want to let you, our parishioners, know that what may have been expected in the past may no longer be the case.
As you may already be aware we are no longer able to provide for funerals on a Sunday in either Parish, including in the case of a member of the Clergy from outside the Parishes offering to do this.
The practice of how graves are allocated in St. Colman's Cemetery has also changed and was published last year in the Parishes. If anyone wishes to be reminded of the new rules of allocating a grave, then please ask through the Parish offices.
We would also now ask that walking to the cemetery after the Funeral Mass or Service be stopped. On an increasing number of occasions recently the Priest or Deacon has been left waiting in the cemetery for an hour and a half or more and, given the multitude of other things that we have to do, then if the family chooses to walk to the cemetery there is a strong possibility that there may not be a Priest or Deacon available for the burial.
Within the next short period of time, the way that the Church has offered funerals previously will change. We fully understand that at times of a bereavement, when people are grieving, that emotions are heightened and feelings can be very raw. With this in mind though, we ask that you might understand our position; that we wish to provide, as we always do, the best care and consolation that we can for you, but that this might not always be as you ask or expect of us.
As things change, we will keep you informed as best we can of anything that may be happening in regards to this in the Parish bulletins.
If anyone has any questions or concerns, please address them to me as Parish Priest through the Parish offices.
Go raibh maith agaibh.
Colum Murphy, PP
