*Dear Lord, it has been the strangest of times. We are told to get used to a 'new normal', that life will no longer be as we knew it. Yet, You Lord are all powerful and all knowing. Clare followed St Francis in his life of poverty and was the founder and ruler of the Poor Clare's, a monastic religious order for women in the Franciscan tradition, and wrote their Rule of Life, the first set of monastic guidelines known to have been written by a woman. She held an austere life abounding in works of piety and charity. She is often portrayed in art as holding a monstrance with the Eucharist in defence of an attack by Saracen mercenaries on her convent community. Clare witnessed to holiness and humanity, wisdom and welcome to all. She was canonised two years after her death. Patron of television.

Seeing your Life through the Lens of the Gospel
Luke 12:32-48
1. The opening verses of this gospel invite us to ask ourselves what do we see as our purpose of life? What are our priorities? Is our heart set on material progress and advance, or do we have other priorities? What has helped you to appreciate that there is more to your life than earthly possessions and success?
2. At times we can sense in Jesus an urgency, as if he wanted to shake people and wake them up to take his word seriously. The parable has that tone: 'Be dressed for action and have your lamps lit'. When have you found that being alert enabled you to grasp a moment of opportunity that you might easily have missed, e.g., when a child or friend gave a hint that they would like to talk, and a very meaningful conversation ensued?
3. Another consideration that adds to the sense of urgency in the words of Jesus is that we do not know how long it will last. Jesus calls on us to live in the now and to treasure the time. Sometimes we can drift aimlessly through the day, and on other occasions use a day purposefully. What difference does that make, if any, how do you experience the day?
