St. Vincent de Paul
Have been facilitating basic English classes for the Syrian refugees since August 2016. Since that date the numbers attending have continued to grow, including other nationalities, and now exceed 50. The group now needs to be divided into small learning units. Staffed totally by volunteers, further help is needed in order to maintain and develop the service. A workshop is being held in the Ozanam Centre, William Street, on Tuesday the 11th April from 7pm to 9pm for anyone who may be interested in assisting with the project.
