Humour Corner

A woman arrived at the gates of Heaven.
She saw a beautiful banquet table, her parents, everyone she loved. "Hello" they all said,
"We have been waiting for you".
She met St. Peter and said, "How do I get in?"
You have to spell a word," he told her.
"Spell Love?" The woman correctly spelled
"Love" and he welcomed her into Heaven.

About a year later St. Peter came to the woman and asked her to watch the Gates of Heaven for him that day.
Her husband arrived and she asked him how he had been? "Oh, I've been doing pretty well since you died, I married that beautiful young nurse who took care of you while you were ill.
Then I won the lottery, then I sold our little house and bought a huge mansion, my wife and I travelled the world. I was in Cancun water skiing, fell and hit my head, and here I am. How do I get in?" "You have to spell a word," the woman told him. "Which word?"
her husband asked. "Czechoslovakia."

Moral of the story:
Never make a woman angry ... there'll be Hell to pay later.

A Grandmother's Prayer to St. Anne

(Eugène Lefebvre, C.Ss. R.)

Dearest St. Anne, grandmother of Christ, I wish to pray to you for my grandchildren.
I know how much you loved your grandchild Jesus. You also know how much my own grandchildren's physical and spiritual well-being means to me.

Keep them in good health, or should they be sick or crippled bring them back to an early and full recovery. May I remind you, dearest St. Anne, of the special fondness that filled Christ's heart for all the children he met while on earth, and of the many cures and other blessings that he showered upon them.

By your own grandson's amazing tenderness for all children, I beg you, St.
Anne, to ask God to keep my grandchildren in his loving care. May she shield them from all evil, either natural or spiritual. Sow in their hearts the seeds of the Christian habits of self-control and of self-dedication to the good and happiness of others. Plant deep in them the basic virtues of faith, hope and true love for their Lord and neighbour.

If any of my grandchildren take the paths that lead to perdition, help me pray that they may soon straighten their ways. But never let me despair. Let me find comfort in the thought that the salvation and happiness of my grandchildren are dearer to Christ's heart than they are to mine, since he chose to die for them.

Impart to my grandchildren all the blessings of this world, that their heavenly Father may wish them to enjoy. Should the Lord be planning for them a life of hardship instead of indulgence and comfort, obtain for them the strength they will need to follow Christ's in his footsteps, carrying their cross until the end of their earthly journey is reached and they are greeted by God at the eternal gate. Amen.
