Leaving A Dear One

The family is not destroyed, but transformed.

A part of it enters the invisible.

We believe that dying leads to absence, when it really is a hidden presence.
We believe it creates infinite distance, when it does away with all distance it returns to the Spirit what was for a time found in the flesh.

Every time someone leaves home and passes away those left behind gain a link in heaven.

Heaven

is no longer home to angels, unknown saints and a mysterious God, but it becomes familiar.

It is the family house, the house up above, so to speak, From up there to down here, memory, helping hands,
calls carry on.

Lord, grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, the courage to change the things I can, and the wisdom to know the difference. Amen.
