Humour Corner

Two Trouble Makers
A couple had two little mischievous boys, ages 8 and 10. They were always getting into trouble, and their parents knew that if any mischief occurred in their town, their sons would get the blame.
The boys' mother heard that a clergyman in town had been successful in disciplining children, so she asked if he would speak with her boys. The clergyman agreed and asked to see them individually.
The mother sent her 8-year-old first, in the morning, with the older boy to see the clergyman in the afternoon.
The clergyman, a huge man with a booming voice, sat the younger boy down and asked him sternly, "Where is God?" The boy's mouth dropped open, but he made no response, sitting there with his mouth hanging open.
The clergyman repeated the question again and again, "Where is God?" Again, the boy made no attempt to answer. The clergyman raised his voice and shook his finger into the boy's face and bellowed, "Where is God?"
The boy screamed, ran from the room, ran home and into his closet and slammed the door shut.
The older brother found him and asked, "What happened?" The younger brother, gasping for breath, replied,
"We are in real BIG trouble this time! God is missing, and they think we did it!"
