*The world you are inheriting is a world which desperately needs a new sense of brotherhood and human solidarity. It is a world which needs to be touched and healed by the beauty and richness of God's love ...
It needs you to be the salt of the earth and the light of the world.*

Courage
During the Mexican War.
Thoreau, the philosopher and writer vehemently opposed to the war, because he believed it to be an attempt to expand slave-holding territories. He refused to pay taxes, because the money was going to the war effort. He ended up in jail rather than pay taxes. Emerson, another philosopher and writer, a friend of his, and someone who was also strongly opposed to the war and to slavery, visited him in prison. Emerson asked Thoreau, 'Henry, why are you in prison?' Thoreau looked him straight in the eye, and quickly asked him, 'Waldo, why are you not here?'
Happy are they who dream dreams, and are prepared to pay the price to make their dreams come true.
The acid test of our conviction about anything is our willingness to be faithful to it, no matter what the consequences.
