Day Or Night

Light a candle,
See it glow,
Watch it dance,
When you feel low,
Think of me,
Think of light,
I'll always be here,
Day or night,
A candle flickers,
Out of sight,
But in your heart,
I still burn bright,
Think not of sadness,
That I'm not here,
Think of gladness,
And joyous cheer,

I have not left,
I am not gone,
I'm here to stay,
My beloved one,
So when you light a candle,
And see it glow,
And you watch it dance,
In your heart you'll know
That I would never leave you,
Even when you feel so blue,
I'm sitting up here with The Lord,
And now watching over you.

New pastoral arrangement within St Paul's

Dear Parishioners

Deacon Kevin Devine has been carrying out his ministry in both of our Lurgan parishes since he was ordained in St Peter's Church in October 2013 and will be very familiar to congregations here in St Paul's. He has regularly participated in the Sunday liturgy in St Paul's Church over the past three years and has frequently delivered the Homily at Mass. From November onwards, Deacon Kevin will be assuming overall pastoral responsibility for that part of St Paul's Parish which Fr McConville had looked after before his recent move to Kilwarlin: that is the district running from Edward Street, through Shankill and along the Lough Road to where St Paul's Parish borders St Peter's. Deacon Kevin will be visiting those household parishioners who previously received Holy Communion at home from Fr McConville, beginning in November. I wish him every blessing in this new area of pastoral ministry.

Death

A sick man turned to his doctor as he was preparing to leave the examination room and said,

*'Doctor, I am afraid to die.
Tell me what lies on the other side.'*

Very quietly, the doctor said,
'I don't know.'

*You don't know?
You're, a Christian man, and don't know what's on the other side?'*

The doctor was holding the handle of the door; on the other side came a sound of scratching and whining, and as he opened the door, a dog sprang into the room and leaped on him with an eager show of gladness.

Turning to the patient, the doctor said, 'Did you notice my dog? He's never been in this room before. He didn't know what was inside. He knew nothing except that his master was here, and when the door opened, he sprang in without fear.

I know little of what is on the other side of death, but I do know one thing ... I know my Master is there and that is enough.'

(May you trust God that you are exactly where you are meant to be).
