Death

IN LOVING MEMORY
Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

That November Feeling
The year quickens to a close, nature slows down its activity. Traditionally, November is a time when we remember the dead in a special way. Gravestones, Memorial Cards, Cemeteries, Anniversary Masses are really about the same thing – keeping our dead alive.

Our memory of them is a kind one, much like our God who is more anxious to search out what is good, than to condemn. Not all our dead were saints, but somehow, in November, we view them at their best. The parent who taught us our first prayers and guided us in so many ways, the infant, the child, the teenager, the grandparent – each of them no matter how long they lived, for seconds or years, give us cause for being grateful of their companionship in life.

We look back, are inspired and are thankful. We look forward and hope that our legacy to a new generation will be no less generous.

Remember our brothers and sisters who have gone to their rest in the hope of rising again. Bring them into the light of your presence.

AUTUMN : PSALM OF CONTENTMENT

O sacred season of Autumn, be my teacher, for I wish to learn the virtue of contentment.

As I gaze upon your full-coloured beauty, I sense all about you an at-homeness with your amber riches. You are the season of retirement, of full barns and harvested fields. The cycle of growth has ceased, and the busy work of giving life is now completed. I sense in you no regrets: You've lived a full life.

I live in a society that is ever-restless, always eager for more mountains to climb seeking happiness through more and more possessions. As a child of my culture, I am seldom truly at peace with what I have. Teach me to take stock of what I have given and received; may I know that it's enough, that my striving can cease in the abundance of God's grace.

May I know the contentment that allows the totality of my energies to come to full flower. May I know that like you I am rich beyond measure. As you, O Autumn, take pleasure in your great bounty, let me also take delight in the abundance of the simple things of life which are the true source of joy.

With the golden glow of peaceful contentment may I truly appreciate this autumn day.
