Catherine McAuley (1778 – 1841)
was a wealthy Dublin heiress who chose to use her fortune to build a house where she and other compassionate women could take in homeless women and children to provide care and an education for them.
Catherine and her group of helpers went on to become the Sisters of Mercy and still continue to this day caring for the sick, the homeless and the poor.
Praying for the Sick through the intercession of Venerable Catherine McAuley
Each Sunday during Lent, 5 pm – 6 pm in St. Patrick & St. Colman's Church, Laurencetown.
Petitions will be brought to the tomb of Catherine McAuley in Baggot Street, Dublin.
