CONSIDER A LIFEGIVING DONATION

The case of a young mother with leukaemia has come to people's attention in the local media recently, highlighting the need for more stem cell donors, without whom there is no cure for some blood cancers. Please consider being a stem cell donor, especially if you are between the ages of 16-30. Blood and organ donation for those who are sick is a powerful expression of human solidarity and Christian charity.

Rachel's Vineyard is a safe place to renew and rebuild your life after experiencing the trauma of abortion.

Rachel's Vineyard is therapy for the soul. Participants, who have been trapped in anger toward themselves or others, experience forgiveness. Peace is found. Lives are restored. A sense of hope and meaning for the future is finally rediscovered. Most of us at Rachel's Vineyard are persons who have walked down the same path as you and have experienced the Healing power through a Rachel's Vineyard Healing Weekend.

Rachel's Vineyard has a number of powerful rituals that will help you connect with and release your grief and sorrow. The retreat helps you deal with repressed grief, guilt, anger, feelings of abandonment, pressure, and ambivalent attachment to your abortion.

HOLIDAY TIME

Have a holy, happy and safe holiday

*Going on holiday?
Please don't forget me.
Call at my House and say a prayer!!*

'Lord, Help Me!'

There is a story told about two insects, one was tiny, and the other, by comparison, was real big. The tiny insect was looking up at the large insect, and he asked, 'What kind of bug are you?' 'I'm a Praying Mantis,' came the reply. The tiny insect chuckled, and replied, 'That's stupid – bugs don't pray!' With that, the Mantis grabbed the tiny insect around the throat and began to squeeze. The poor little insect's eyes began to bulge. Then rolling its eyeballs heavenward, it screamed 'Lord, help me!'

There comes a time for all of us when all we can do is cry out to God for help.

*When you're on the broad of your back,
there's only one way to look-that's up!*

There are very few atheists in rubber dinghies in the middle of the Atlantic!

Prayer For Forgiveness

O my God, help me to remember the times when I didn't live as Jesus asked me to.
Help me to be sorry and to try again.

Amen.

4 SEASONS ~ THE MEASURE OF LIFE

There was a man who had four sons. He wanted his sons to learn not to judge things too quickly. So he sent them each on a quest, in turn, to go and look at a pear tree that was a great distance away.

The first son went in the winter, the second in the spring, the third in summer, and the youngest son in the fall. When they had all gone and come back, he called them together to describe what they had seen. The first son said that the tree was ugly, bent, and twisted. The second son said no – it was covered with green buds and full of promise. The third son disagreed, he said it was laden with blossoms that smelled so sweet and looked so beautiful, it was the most graceful thing he had ever seen. The last son disagreed with all of them; he said it was ripe and drooping with fruit, full of life and fulfilment.

The man then explained to his sons that they were all right, because they had each seen ONLY one season in the tree's life. He told them that you cannot judge a tree, or a person, by only one season and that the essence of who they are – and the pleasure, joy, and love that come from that life – can only be measured at the end, when all the seasons are up.

If you give up when it's winter, you will miss the promise of your spring, the beauty of your summer, fulfilment of your fall. Don't let the pain of one season destroy the joy of all the rest. Don't judge life by one difficult season. Persevere through the difficult patches and better times are sure to come sometime or later.
