20th OCTOBER MISSION SUNDAY
This weekend parishes worldwide celebrate World Mission Sunday. The Holy Father's annual appeal to support overseas mission and missionaries.
The kindness shown will help overseas missionaries to continue to share the love of God with some of the world's most marginalised and vulnerable people.
Thank you for supporting in whatever way you can, and please remember it is more than an appeal for financial help.
Missionaries also need spiritual support. On World Mission Sunday missionaries take great strength in knowing that the faithful of the world are keeping them in their thoughts and prayers.

Mission, we see, is a tireless going out to all men and women, in order to invite then to encounter God and enter into communion with him. Tireless! God, great in love and rich in mercy, constantly sets out to encounter all men and women, and to call them to the happiness of his kingdom, even in the face of their indifference or refusal Jesus Christ, the Good Shepherd and messenger of the Father, went out in search of the lost sheep of the people of Israel and desired to go even further, in order to reach even the most distant sheep (cf. Jn 10:16). Both before and after his resurrection, he told his disciples, 'Go!', thus involving them in his own mission. The Church, for her part, in fidelity to the mission she has received from the Lord, will continue to go to the ends of the earth, to set out over and over again, without ever growing weary or losing heart in the face of difficulties and obstacles. Let us not forget that every Christian is called to take part in his or her own universal mission by offering his or her own witness to the Gospel in every context, so that the whole Church can continually go forth with her Lord and Master to the 'crossroads of today's world. Today's drama in the Church is that Jesus keeps knocking on the door, but from within, so that we let him out! Often, we end up being an 'imprisoning' Church which does not let the Lord out, which keeps him as 'its own', whereas the Lord came for mission and want us to be missionaries.
