THE TOWN CRIER

Age is simply a quality of mind. If you have left your dreams behind, if hope is cold, if you no longer plan ahead, if ambitions are dead, then you are old.

But if you make of life the best, and in your life you still have zest, if love you hold, no matter how the years go by, no matter how the birthdays fly, you are not old.

On a street in San Francisco there is a funeral parlour with beige curtains covering the window. On window there is a sign that reads, 'Why walk around half dead, when we can bury you for ninety eight dollars?'

Sometimes it can seem that there a lot of people who are walking around half dead. They are certainly not old, but everything seems like a big effort.

Sometimes whenever I'm shopping and I see someone coming along, whom I know from experience will start moaning and complaining, I slip into the nearest shop and pretend that I have to buy something.

There are so many people around who I know for a fact are in full health, yet no matter when you meet them they have something to complain about - if it's not their ingrown toe nail, it's their pet Labrador experiencing hot flushes and displaying early signs of menopause.

In the morning whenever the alarm clock goes off, do we say: 'Good morning God?' Or 'Good God, it's morning!'

A true story..... Wilma Rudolph was a tiny premature baby, who caught pneumonia, then scarlet fever and finally polio. The polio left one of her legs badly crippled, with her foot twisted inwards. Until the age of eleven she hobbled around on a metal brace.

Wilma asked her sister to keep watch every day while she tried to walk without her braces. She practiced for a very long time, but was afraid that her parents might find out. Eventually, feeling guilty she told her doctor who was flabbergasted. However, he gave her permission to continue what she was doing, but only for a short period of time.

Eventually Wilma threw her crutches away. She progressed to running, and when she was sixteen she won a bronze medal in the relay race at the Melbourne Olympics. Four years later at the Olympics in Rome, Wilma became the first woman in history to win three gold medals in track and field.

Wilma returned to a huge welcome in the US and received the Sullivan Award as the nation's top athlete! Still feel like complaining?

CHANGES TO MASS TIMES

Due to the unavailability of priests in St Peter's and St Paul's parishes during July/August, a decision has regretfully been made to discontinue the Friday evening Mass at 7.00pm in St Peter's.

Instead of Mass our permanent deacon Rev Kevin Devine, will lead a Eucharistic Service, at which Holy Communion will be offered.

These changes will take effect from Friday 2 July.

PRAYER FOR A JOURNEY

Gracious God, in whom we live and move and have our being, be with us throughout the course of this journey, so that under your protecting hand, we may reach our destination in safety, through Jesus, the Christ, our Lord. Amen

Our Lady of Mount Carmel is the title given to the Blessed Virgin Mary in her role as patroness of the Carmelite Order." Our Lady of Mount Carmel was adopted in the 19th century as the patron saint of Chile. Since the 15th century, devotion to Our Lady of Mount Carmel has centred on the Scapular of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, also known as the Brown Scapular. Feast Day - 16th July

ST COLMAN'S CEMETERY

Due to the lessening of Covid-19 restrictions, we are able to open the small (wicker) gate to the cemetery at North Circular Road.

We would advise visitors to continue to use best practice and Covid-19 guidelines when opening it.

We have had complaints about people bringing dogs into the cemetery and soiling on graves.

The cemetery is a sacred space. Please be respectful.

Keep dogs on leads!
