CONSIDER A LIFEGIVING DONATION

The case of a young mother with leukaemia has come to people's attention in the local media recently, highlighting the need for more stem cell donors, without whom there is no cure for some blood cancers. Please consider being a stem cell donor, especially if you are between the ages of 16–30. Blood and organ donation for those who are sick is a powerful expression of human solidarity and Christian charity.

Rachel's Vineyard is a safe place to renew and rebuild your life after experiencing the trauma of abortion.

Rachel's Vineyard is therapy for the soul. Participants, who have been trapped in anger toward themselves or others, experience forgiveness. Peace is found. Lives are restored. A sense of hope and meaning for the future is finally rediscovered. Most of us at Rachel's Vineyard are persons who have walked down the same path as you and have experienced the Healing power through a Rachel's Vineyard Healing Weekend.

Rachel's Vineyard has a number of powerful rituals that will help you connect with and release your grief and sorrow. The retreat helps you deal with repressed grief, guilt, anger, feelings of abandonment, pressure, and ambivalent attachment to your abortion.

On behalf of all who require the services of the food bank, thank you for the remarkable generosity shown in providing donations since the initiative began. Keep an eye on the bulletin for up-to-date notes on items most required.

Please note:

For storage reasons the drop-off point for all food bank items will now be in the sacristy, and not at the door of the church. Thank you for your continued kindness.

White Hair

A little girl was watching her mother wash dishes when she noticed that her mother had a few white hairs. She asked her mom why she has white hairs. Her mother replied,
"every time you do something that makes me sad, I get another white hair".

The little girl thought about this for a few moments and then asked,
"mommy, why are ALL of grandma's hairs white?"

Preaching The Bible

A Chaplain on a battle-field came across a young man who was lying in a shell hole, seriously wounded. 'Would you like me to read you something from this book, the Bible?' he asked. 'I'm so thirsty; I'd rather have a drink of water,' the soldier said. Hurrying away, the chaplain soon brought the water. Then the wounded man said, 'Could you put something under my head?'

The chaplain took off his over-coat, rolled it up, and gently placed it under the man's head for a pillow. 'Now,' said the suffering man, if I just had something over me - I'm cold.' The Chaplain immediately removed his jacket and put it over the wounded man to keep him warm.

Then the soldier looked the Chaplain straight in the eye and said, 'If there's anything in that book that makes a man do for another all that you have done for me, then please read it, because I'd love to hear it.'

If my actions don't speak of Gospel values, be sure my words never will. What effects people most is often caught rather than taught.
